Senate Looks For Showdown Over Poll Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators, undecided on how long to carry on their fight against an anti-poll tax measure, kept proceedings of the Senate in low gear Tuesday.

Not only was the Senate itself prevented from taking any action but its committees also were shutting down as leaders stepped up pressure on the Dixie forces for a showdown.

So far no headway has been made toward getting before the Senate a constitutional amendment to outlaw the poll tax as a requirement for voting in federal elections. The move was initiated last Wednesday.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., longtime leader of the Southern forces, told a reporter that a decision on how far to press the battle was still up in the air.

Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., is the chief sponsor of the measure, which has been urged by President Kennedy and which won Senate approval by a 72-16 vote two years ago.

To put more pressure on the Southerners, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana had the Senate meet at 10:30 a.m., an hour and a half ahead of the usual time, and announced that Wednesday's session would start at 9 a.m.

He also said he would block committee meetings during Senate session until the issue is settled and strictly enforce the rule barring a senator who has the floor from yielding to a colleague for anything except a question.

Phone Company Girl Commando Unit Disarmed

FOLEY, Ala. (AP) — John Snook's extensive training of telephone operators as girl commandos has been stymied — at least temporarily.

Federal Alcohol Tax Unit agents seized Monday eight sub-machine guns or other automatic weapons which Snook, an executive of the Independent Gulf Telephone Co. of Foley, used as part of the training of the 23 women employees of the company.

The officers said the automatic weapons were not registered with the Treasury Department as required by law. The Alcohol Tax Unit is a branch of the Treasury Department. Its duties include enforcement of the Firearms Act.

Agents said the seizure resulted from the recent nationwide publicity Snook and the girl commandos received in publications and television.

Snook was not charged and was not taken into custody.

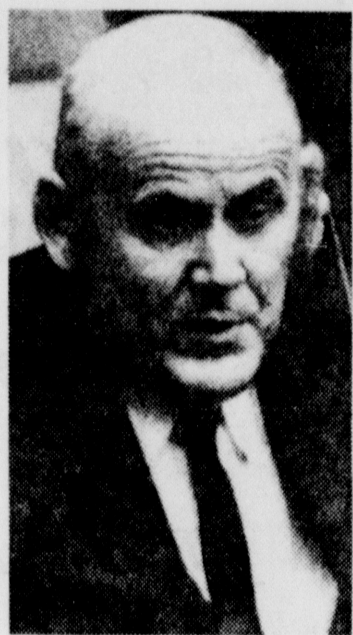

A small, wiry man who wears a Van Dyke beard, he said he started the training program in 1948. It was given impetus after the start of the Korean war when a number of the company's male employees were called to active duty.

White House Denies Nixon Cuba Charge

Kennedy Not Told About U.S. Plans To Back Invasion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon drew return fire from the White House Tuesday with his charge that President Kennedy endangered security of the Cuban invasion attempt by campaign statements.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy knew nothing about U.S. support of a possible Cuban invasion until after the 1960 election.

Kennedy was briefed twice during the 1960 campaign by Allen Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, but Salinger said these consisted mainly of a broad review of the world situation.

Dulles Backs Up Kennedy

In a separate statement, Dulles backed up the White House.

He said, "My briefings were intelligence briefings on the world situation. They did not cover our own government's plans or programs for action, overt or covert."

Nixon, who lost to Kennedy by a narrow margin, said in his book, "Six Crises," that Kennedy had been informed during the CIA briefings that the administration was training Cuban exiles for an invasion.

During the campaign, Nixon said, Kennedy called for action to "strengthen the non-Batista democratic anti-Castro forces in exile and in Cuba itself who offer eventual hope of overthrowing Castro."

Became Angry At Kennedy

The former vice president said this was the only time during the 1960 presidential campaign that he actually became angry at Kennedy.

Nixon said he had been one of the strongest advocates of the Cuban operation, but now he was forced to oppose it in public statements.

"The covert operation had to be protected at all costs," said Nixon. "I must not suggest even by implication that the United States was rendering aid to rebel forces in and out of Cuba. In fact, I must go to the other extreme; I must attack the Kennedy proposal to provide such aid as wrong and irresponsible because it would violate our treaty commitments."

He made no specific reference to a reply from Soviet Premier Khrushchev to President Kennedy's specific proposals for U.S.-Soviet collaboration.

U.S. Delegate Francis T. P. Plimpton outlined Kennedy's proposals to the committee at its opening session Monday.

Plimpton stressed that the United States was open to any specific suggestions the Soviet Union might offer in reply, and that a positive response would be a favorable omen "for our work here and, indeed, for peace everywhere."

Morozov said Soviet scientists believed space research has reached the stage where artificial satellites could be used for telecommunications.

He added that Soviet scientists and specialists would take part in preparing technical projects along that line and would submit information on communication systems "already in operation."

Charged With Grand Larceny

Peter R. Sherry (right), 35, and his wife, Rosemary, 31, are pictured at courthouse in Riverhead, N.Y., after their arrest on grand larceny charges. Sherry was born Peter Anthony Bachulis and had his name legally changed to Sherry in 1951. According to Suffolk County District Attorney Bernard Smith, Sherry obtained and filed a death certificate in his former name and then Mrs. Sherry collected more than $40,000 in eight years in veterans and social security benefits for herself and their child.

Democrats Act Sweden, India Urge A-Test Moratorium

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed $1.8-billion tax reward for business investing in modern equipment should be slimmer by about a third, its backers decided Tuesday.

These second thoughts on a controversial tax bill resulted in postponement of the showdown vote in the House, scheduled originally for late this week, until at least next Tuesday.

The bill is an outgrowth of President Kennedy's suggestion that Congress give a tax break to firms willing to spend on improving their plants and recoup the lost revenue by tax tightening changes down the line. But it has been modified sharply from his proposals. The changes were generally in the direction of more loss of revenue.

The outlook was for a $1.5-billion revenue loss next year, which would convert the modest budget surplus Kennedy has forecast into a deficit of $1 billion or more.

So Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said the House Ways and Means Committee will make one more major operation on the bill on which it "finished work" last week. He said he has assurances from his committee members that they will agree on amendments cutting back the proposed investment credit by $500 million to $650 million annually.

Republican members, who said they were not consulted on these proposed changes, meanwhile pushed ideas of their own — speeded-up depreciation allowances instead of the investment credit, a different treatment of income from foreign subsidiaries, and deletion of one of the main Democratic revenue-raising measures: withholding of income tax on dividends and interest.

All these proposals and counter-proposals were laid before the House Rules Committee, which is considering the procedures under which the bill will go to the House for action.

Invasion Prisoners To Face Cuban Courts

HAVANA (AP) — Invasion prisoners that Prime Minister Fidel Castro offered to exchange for U.S. tractors will be tried in military courts.

A brief announcement from the judicial department of the armed forces Tuesday set the date for March 29. But it did not list the charges or say whether all or just some of the prisoners will face the Cuban courts. There was no hint of the kind of punishment the Cuban government will seek.

About 1,000 or more prisoners are known to have been in an old fortress-like prison in midtown Havana after the unsuccessful invasion of the Bay of Pigs last April 17.

Secret Army Opens Up With Mortars, Moslems Executed

ALGIERS (UPI) — The European Secret Army (OAS) dropped mortar shells into a street crowd in Algiers Tuesday and Moslems killed scores of other Moslems in mass executions near Oran 24 hours after peace was proclaimed in Algeria.

More than 100 persons were killed in one of the most violent days in recent Algerian history.

In villages across Algeria, troops fired on Moslem mobs trying to invade European sectors in "victory" celebrations to mark the end of the 7½ year war of independence.

At least 101 persons died and another 105 were wounded in the outburst that followed 24 hours of relative calm in the wake of Monday's cease-fire. The new casualties raised the 1962 terror toll to 1,867 killed and 3,583 wounded.

32 Moslems Executed

In major incidents of violence: —At least 73 persons were killed in the fighting between Moslem factions in the villages of St. Dennis Du Sig, 35 miles from Oran. Thirty-two Moslems were executed by revenge-seeking "Harki" auxiliary troops of the French army after they had learned 11 of their colleagues had been murdered. The Harkis found 40 Moslems burying victims in a field and massacred 32 of them. Continuing reprisals by Harkis, defying demands that they quit their jobs with the French, killed another 30.

—In Algiers, the Secret Army Organization, seeking to sabotage the cease-fire, fired six mortar bombs that exploded in a crowded square at the entrance to the Moslem Casbah. At least four persons were killed and 67 wounded in the attacks.

Demonstrators Fired On

—In the western port of Oran, troops and police opened fire on Moslem and European demonstrations on at least 13 separate occasions. Eight deaths and at least 12 injuries were reported in the Oran violence.

—Scores of Moslems were killed or wounded when troops fired on demonstrators as they tried to invade European sectors in villages across the country.

In Algiers, the OAS mortar shells were fired at three-second intervals some 500 yards from the entrance to Algiers' famed Casbah Arab quarter.

The mortar shells exploded in the sunlit Place du Gouvernement (Government Square) at 4:15 p.m. Trained soldiers leaped for cover. But most civilians—many of them Moslem women stood rooted by the terror and were knocked down bleeding from the explosion.

Reservists' Release Due To Start Aug. 25

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon reportedly is planning Aug. 25 as the date to start releasing more than 155,000 Reservists and National Guardsmen called into uniform last fall at the height of the Berlin crisis.

Informed sources said Tuesday night the aim would be to have all or virtually all the Reservists and Guardsmen back home by about Sept. 25.

This would be just short of the one-year limit Congress authorized for their active service tour. Release much earlier than this is considered unlikely, largely because of the continuing Communist threats in Berlin and South Viet Nam.

Kennedy Acts To Clear Way For Coal Pipelines

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy asked Congress Tuesday for legislation to make it easier to build coal-carrying pipelines.

The legislation he proposed would grant the right of eminent domain to the builders of any carrier of coal by pipeline subject to regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

This means land could be condemned for the pipeline. Kennedy described coal resources as one of the nation's greatest assets. He noted, however, that in recent years many coal mine communities have suffered from reduced mining operations because of the decline in coal consumption.

Integrationists Are Convicted

EASTON, Md. (AP) — Judge J. DeWeese Carter of Talbot County Circuit Court convicted 17 integrationists Tuesday of trespassing.

He found one innocent and continued the cases of nine juveniles. All 27 persons had been arrested in Easton or along nearby U.S. 50 during protests against racial segregation of public facilities on Feb. 17, Feb. 24 or March 3.

Gary Raymond Piper, 19, white, (423 Lockwood St.) Akron, Ohio, was found innocent of trespassing at Bill's Steak House in Easton. Judge Carter was told Piper was standing on the sidewalk, leaning against the building, when he was charged with trespassing.

Sixteen of the integrationists were fined $50 and costs. The 17th, William W. Hansen, 22, white, Cincinnati, was fined $100 and costs. Judge Carter said he imposed the larger fine because of Hansen's previous convictions on similar charges.

Archie D. Williams of Baltimore, attorney for the 17, filed notice of appeal. Bond was set at $100 for each of the demonstrators, all of whom had pleaded innocent.

newed vigor and hope and for increased economic strength for this coal industry," Kennedy said. "If costs can be lowered in this fashion, all segments of the economy will benefit."

Kennedy, in letters to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker John W. McCormack, said he understands that plans have already been made for a pipeline to carry coal from West Virginia to the Eastern Seaboard. However, he wrote, unless a holdup can be obtained, these plans will be postponed and they may ultimately have to be discontinued.

He said pipeline transportation of coal may also play an important role in the economies of areas other than West Virginia. He said it is being studied in the Rocky Mountain region for the use in west coal markets.

When transported by pipeline, coal is ground and water added to form a soupy mixture known as slurry.

Coal already is being transported in this manner by a 100-mile long pipeline in Ohio.

Court Upholds "Meter Maids"

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The State Supreme Court Tuesday upheld the right of West Virginia cities to hire "meter maids" for the purpose of checking parking meter violations and issuing citations, outside police civil service regulations.

The ruling came in a suit by South Charleston Patrolman Robert W. Parkins aimed at forcing the dismissal of three meter maids who Parkins claimed performed the duties of policemen.

However, the high court ruled unanimously that the women were not covered by police civil service regulations because they "have taken no oath and have posted no bond as required of police officers."

"They make no arrests, carry no firearms, and do not procure the issuance of warrants of arrest. They work under the supervision of the mayor and the chief of police," the court said.

Fast-Acting Cop Captures Bank Bandits

BALTIMORE (AP) — A fast-acting policeman disarmed and captured two bandits Tuesday before they could escape with $17,768 from the Maryland National Bank.

Nearly two dozen customers and bank employees crouched on the floor or hid behind counters as the bandits and Patrolman Edward Tilghman, 37, exchanged four shots.

Tilghman, cruising in a patrol car, was alerted when the assistant manager of the bank, Mrs. Bernadine Iglehart, 52, managed to trip a bank alarm as the holdup was in progress. Tilghman heard the alarm on his police radio.

The policeman, gun drawn, ran into the bank. Someone yelled "Look out behind you!" and Tilghman whirled. He saw a man with gun in hand. Tilghman grappled with the man, disarmed him, then saw a second man behind a bank counter, still loading money into a white laundry bag.

Grabbing the first bandit and using him as a shield, Tilghman ordered the man to surrender.

Instead, he fired two shots at Tilghman. Purposely aiming high, Tilghman fired two shots before the robber yelled, "Okay, I give up."

It was all over a few seconds later when Lt. Bernard Deinein arrived at the bank. The two men captured by Tilghman, one a 22-year-old unemployed man and the other a 24-year-old waiter, were taken to a police station for questioning.

The bank manager, William J. Shelley, 56, later counted the money which had been gathered at all nine tills of the bank. He said the pair had collected $17,768.

Shelley said the two men entered the bank about 10 a.m. and one came to his office to ask for a loan. Before he could respond, Shelley said, the man stuck a small-caliber automatic in his ribs and announced a holdup.

Tax Refund Rate Ahead Of 1961 Pace

BALTIMORE (AP) — More than 569,000 taxpayers in Maryland and the District of Columbia have received state or federal tax refunds totaling more than $47,792,600 since Jan. 1.

Records at the Maryland Comptroller's Office in Annapolis show that 190,000 taxpayers have received $4,792,680 in refunds. The Internal Revenue Service has returned more than $43 million to 379,000 taxpayers.

Spokesmen for both agencies said the refund rate is running ahead of last year's pace.

News Tip Calls Delay Firemen

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Fire Chief Edward H. Koerkle says his men were delayed in reaching a fire at the Schick, Inc., plant Monday because telephone lines were tied up by employees reporting it to a York radio station offering $5 apiece for news tips.

"The persons tying up the line were probably too anxious to get a monetary reward. I have had experiences along those lines before," Koerkle said.

Cecil Arrowsmith, public relations chief for Schick, said the company is investigating.

The fire broke out in a huge dust box before noon Monday, spreading thick smoke throughout the plant. About 400 production employees were given a half holiday.

W. Va. Road Probe Looms

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House subcommittee investigating scandals in the construction of federal aid highways appeared ready Tuesday to turn its attention on West Virginia.

Previously the subcommittee has uncovered irregularities—and worse, in some cases—in Oklahoma, Florida, New Mexico and Massachusetts.

Walter May, chief counsel for the subcommittee of the House Public Works Committee, said a public hearing would be held later this year to study evidence subcommittee investigators have gathered in West Virginia.

May said the investigators have dealt primarily with land acquisition practices but will not limit their inquiries to this phase of the highway program.

Deceptive Packaging Target Of Crackdown

WASHINGTON (AP) — George P. Larrick, food and drug commissioner, said Tuesday he plans to ask new federal laws to make it easier for the housewife to find out just what she is getting for her money at the supermarket.

Larrick, announcing a crackdown on false and misleading labels on food packages and other products, displayed a suitcase full of samples to the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee.

President Kennedy has said new laws may be needed and the subcommittee, headed by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., is winding up a probe of deceptive packaging practices.

Larrick told the senators he wanted to take another look to make sure whether tougher laws are needed. But he later told a reporter he is sure the answer will be "yes."

$35 Million Disaster Aid Seen Adequate

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Office of Emergency Planning voiced confidence Tuesday the $35 million in relief proposed by President Kennedy for Atlantic Coast communities battered by the big storm of two weeks ago will be adequate.

Eugene J. Quindlen, OEP relief director, told a group of congressmen from the affected states that early estimates of damage in such disasters usually exceed the amount of money actually needed.

"This has been our experience in the past," Quindlen told the group at a meeting in the office of Rep. Harris B. McDowell, Jr., D-Del. "We are confident the President's request for funds will be large enough."

Of the $35 million presidential relief request, $25 million would go for aid in restoring damaged public facilities in the stricken seacoast communities, along with some aid for recent flood damage in West Virginia, Kentucky and Idaho, and $10 million would be for the Small Business Administration for disasters loans to residents and businessmen in the coastal areas.

At Tuesday's meeting, great differences were shown in estimates on the amount of damage done to seashore resorts stretching from New York through New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia to North Carolina.

Maj. Gen. William F. Cassidy, director of civil works for the Army Engineers, reported damage estimates to shore front installations—exclusive of damage to private property—in New Jersey at $37 million, Delaware at $5.5 million, Maryland at $1.8 million and Virginia at $5.2 million. These were the four states represented at the meeting.

All congressmen present agreed to cooperate in securing whatever legislation may be needed to provide sufficient relief for the stricken communities.

The Sixteenth Amendment gave Congress the power to tax incomes.

"Double" Candidates Barred, Plan Suit

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — The president of the Anne Arundel County Board of Election Supervisors said Tuesday the question of whether three Republican candidates were taken off the ballot illegally will be discussed at a meeting of the board Thursday night.

President Douglas Hantske added, however, "We're governed only by the law books and the law clearly states that a person can run for only one office."

The three candidates, who filed for public offices as well as the Republican State Central Committee, threatened earlier Tuesday to sue the board if their names were not certified for the May 15 primary ballot. The candidates are Joseph M. Baker Jr. for 5th district congressional nomination, Frederick P. Cermody for county commissioner, and Mrs. Josephine B. Sullivan for judge of the Orphans Court.

Hantske, in letters to the candidates advising of the board's decision, said the election law provides that "no persons shall be a candidate for more than one office in any one election."

He stated that because they filed for two offices their names would not appear on the primary ballot, first U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

George S. Boutwell was the first U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Aid Is Sought For Victims Of Tragic Fire

The Bedford Road Volunteer Fire Company has joined a drive to secure clothing and furniture for the victims of Saturday's tragic fire on Broadway.

The relief committee of the fire company met Monday and discussed plans to secure furniture for the victims.

Officials of the Allegany County Chapter of the American Red Cross said today they have received sufficient clothing for the burned out families, however furniture is badly needed.

The members of the fire company have volunteered to pick up any furniture persons may wish to donate. Douglas Heavner Sr. and Carl Twigg are serving as co-chairmen of the furniture drive. They may be contacted by telephoning PA 2-2628 or PA 2-8283.

John J. Gentile, 46, of 14 East Fairview Street, Piedmont, was released under $5,000 bond Monday evening from the Mineral County Jail in Keyser.

Gentile was lodged in the county lockup Sunday to await a hearing in a murder case. He was charged with the stabbing of his brother-in-law, Ralph Lepley, 46, same address, Saturday night at the home.

Lepley was pronounced dead on arrival Saturday night at Potomac Valley Hospital in Keyser. Authorities said death was due to shock caused by an intra-abdominal hemorrhage. He was reportedly stabbed in the abdomen above the belt line.

Attorney Vernon (Pat) Rankin of Keyser, represents the defendant. On Monday Attorney Rankin took Gentile before Circuit Court Judge David Cuppett who set the bond at $5,000 pending action of the next term of Circuit Court.

How Women Can Lose 2 to 7 lbs. Of Bloating 'Water-Weight' During the Pre-Menstrual Week

New Medical Discovery Tested By Nurses on Themselves Also Relieves Swelling, Pelvic Pressure, Pain and Accompanying Moodiness, Nervous Tension In a Way No Aspirin or Pain Reliever Possibly Can.

New York, N. Y.: Doctors who are specialists in women's ailments have now discovered that several days before a woman's period her system often stores up an abnormal accumulation of water—from 2 to 7 lbs. This causes body tissues to swell and results in a sudden gain of weight and abdominal puffiness. It also causes breast soreness, headache, depression, nervous tension and irritability. Having discovered this cause of woman's suffering, science has developed astonishing medical help with a new tablet called Trender®.

Trender first helps rid the system of harmful excess water and induces a prompt loss of bloating weight. Irregular headache, cramps and accompanying nervous tension, irritability, depression, both before and during periods—in a way no pain reliever alone possibly can. Trender Tablets have been thoroughly tested by hundreds of Registered Nurses on themselves. Proven safe and effective, when taken as directed. Every woman troubled this way should try Trender at once. Now obtainable without prescription at any drug counter.

of Warsaw has presented concerts in this country.

The representative from the Polish Embassy pointed out the competition in sports between the United States and Poland. Athletes from the two countries compete in track, soccer and fencing and the Harlem Globetrotters made a big hit in a recent visit to Poland.

There are about 200 graduate students and research scientists from Poland now studying in the United States and 16 American students are enrolled in the Warsaw University.

Since 1957 there has been a considerable growth in trade between the United States and Poland. Last year, Mr. Grzybowski said, the United States exported goods valued at $120 million to Poland while Polish exports to the United States amounted to about $41 million.

In his remarks to the Rotarians and their guests, the commercial

Mrs. Streets Will Leave Hospital

Mrs. Darlene (Warnick) Streets, 20 of Baltimore, will be discharged Saturday from Winchester Memorial Hospital where she has been a patient since November 12.

Mrs. Streets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Warnick, McCullen Highway, was injured in a one-car accident, near Winchester November 12. She will spend sometime with her parents before returning to Baltimore.

counselor made no mention of the government of Poland.

When asked afterwards if Poland did not have a Communist government, he termed it socialistic. He stressed that today 98 per cent of the farms in Poland are privately owned.

Some Rotarians expressed disappointment that Mr. Grzybowski made no mention of the events of 1956 which seemed to reduce the Russian influence on his native land.

Although the revolt of workers in Poznan, Poland, on June 28, 1956, against Communist rule was crushed with 44 killed and hundreds wounded, the Polish Communist leaders defied Kremlin leadership on October 19 to 21, 1956, and elected Wladyslaw Gomulka to head a more independent government.

Gomulka dissolved the majority of the 12,500 collective farms in 1956. That same year religious instruction in that strongly Roman Catholic land was introduced into the schools as an extra-curricular subject on a voluntary basis for children whose parents wished it.

Mahoney Tries

ple are those of Mahoney and Carlton R. Sickles, his candidate for congressman-at-large. Sickles has been known as a labor advocate while serving two terms in the House of Delegates from Prince Georges County.

A representative of the Teamsters Union also informed Mahoney. "We're interested in good government of the state and we don't think we have it now."

While Mahoney was busy in his behind-the-scenes move for organization support, he also had time to dispute at long distance with Taves. He obviously was nettled at a statement Monday by Taves implying that Mahoney is a party wrecker.

Mahoney recalled that Taves backed him in 1956 when he ran for the U. S. Senate.

"I wasn't a party-wrecker then, so far as he is concerned, so why am I now?" Mahoney asked.

Recalls 1960 Primary

Mahoney also reminded that in the same year he and Taves had collaborated in grabbing control of a Democratic state convention. "If anybody is a party wrecker, it is Taves," Mahoney continued. "He tried to keep President Kennedy out of appearing in a Maryland primary in 1960 and then tried to give him a primary fight."

There had been talk that Taves would file as a favorite son for the Democratic presidential nomination two years ago. Kennedy filed and won support of Maryland Democrats at the national convention.

Gov. Taves did not accompany his running mates on their tour of the Allegany County hinterlands. He left to dedicate a new building and a school for the deaf in Frederick after a breakfast with local candidates.

Taves rejoined his group along with that of Mahoney at a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner Tuesday night, where any criticism was to be limited to Republicans.

Hume Urges Safety

A third candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, David Hume, said Tuesday one of his prime goals is a crash program to promote safety in the Indian Head, Md., Naval Propellant Plant.

Hume made the remark in a statement prepared for release before a Young Democrats Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner here.

"Increasingly volatile missile fuels are credited with a growing number of deaths and explosions in recent years," he said. "Every effort should be extended to translate remote control experimentation already prevalent in atomic installations into practical application at the huge missile-producing facility."

Hume carries his campaign to Prince Georges County Wednesday.

Women Die As Home Burns

Two elderly Garrett County sisters were burned to death yesterday in a fire which destroyed their two-story frame farm home at Mason School House Settlement about six miles south of Oakland.

The victims were identified as Mrs. Alma Z. Lee, 70, wife of Robert Grover Lee, who escaped harm in the holocaust, and Mrs. Sophrona M. Davis, 77, formerly of Preston County, W. Va.

The deaths brought to 13 the number of Western Marylanders who perished in fires since last Saturday. Six children and an adult lost their lives in Cumberland, and a father and his three children, formerly of Westernport, died when flames gutted their home in Essex.

Firemen from Oakland went to the scene about 3 a. m., but flames were out of control. Little could be done to save the building.

Origin of the blaze is undetermined, but officials believe it apparently started in a woodshed near the house. Both victims were burned beyond recognition.

After discovering the blaze Lee left the burning house, thinking his wife and her sister had fled. Failing to locate them, he reentered the structure and was leading Mrs. Lee outside when she turned and went back into the building, apparently in search of her sister.

Mrs. Davis resided with the Lees for six years. The couple had lived on the farm 19 years. The two sisters were daughters of the late Amelius and Elizabeth (Glass) Fike. Mrs. Lee was born October 6, 1891 and Mrs. Davis December 19, 1884.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Lee is survived by two sons, Claude Davis Lee, Coraopolis, Pa., and Gerald Milton Lee, Los Angeles; a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Freeman, Cleveland; 17 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Davis, widow of Finley Davis, leaves five children by her first marriage to the late Harman Neubert: Mrs. Wilbur Cox, Lydia, Bessie, Ervin and Robert Neubert, all of Lima. There are seven grandchildren.

The victims have three half-sisters, Mrs. Dewey Shaffer, Vienna, Va.; Mrs. May Beckman and Mrs. Leota Martin, Eggon, W. Va., and a half-brother, Leo Fike, Cumberland.

The bodies are at the Leighton Funeral Home. Joint services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. in Gorman Church of God, of which both were members. Rev. John Bava will officiate with interment in Eggon Cemetery.

Democratic

In all the pages of this nation's history, there is no record to equal the record of progress for the nation, under these great leaders.

Then he challenged his listeners to join the fight against Communism, to remain steadfast as Democrats and as American citizens interested in the general public good. "Beware of half truths; do not let mistrust become stronger than faith, nor fear stronger than hope," he said.

Family Fights

"When the primary is over, keep the family fight a family fight, and then join hands and make it a cold day outside in November for the Republican Party."

"This nation cannot endure with a program of inaction and indecision," he observed. Then he concluded with the suggestion that good neighbors, good friends, good citizens, give back to the community as much as they take away. "That is democracy at work."

William L. Wilson, county party chairman, presided and introduced a list of candidates and county office holders. He explained that with more than a score of Democratic candidates present it would not be possible for each to make a speech. As he and Mr. Finan presented the distinguished guests and candidates, each stood for recognition.

A program of musical selections was presented by the Sophisticates from Frostburg State Teachers College, and Gov. J. Millard Taves, on behalf of the Allegany County State Central Committee, presented Mr. Finan with a beautiful framed etching of the State House in Annapolis, as a token of his work in the county and the state within the party.

Rev. Francis Montgomery, pastor of St. Michael's Catholic Church, Frostburg, offered the invocation and Rev. H. M. Richardson, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, pronounced the benediction.

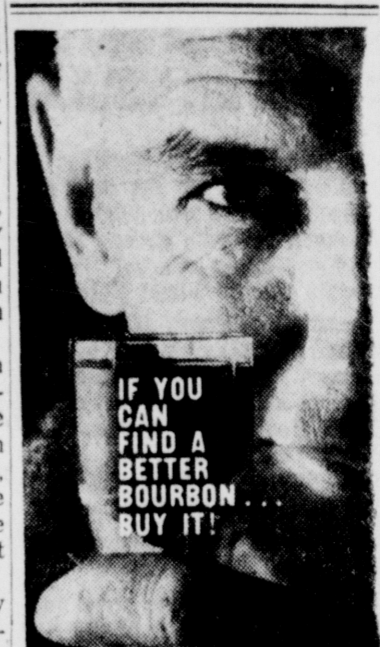

Usherettes were Sharon Barkman, Patsy Daychak, Margaret Scott, Regina Smith and Suzanne Weatherholt.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials of normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs frequently cramp and gripe. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONOID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONOID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONOID's unique rebulking action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONOID acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONOID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONOID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONOID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

"The Sergeant Was A Lady"

Keeping Up With Hollywood by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—"The Wall of Noise," which Joseph Landon is getting ready at Warner Brothers, was written by Danny Stein, nephew of the late Gertrude Stein. As the poetess herself might have said, "A movie is a movie, is a movie," and that's what this will be.

Jack Warner has pencilled in Connie Stevens for the lead and I don't know if I'm talking out of school, but with an eye to the boxoffice, he is offering the co-starring role to Glenn Ford.

Speaking of Danny Stein again, he and his sister will inherit a treasure in art, 30 Picassos, 10 Matisse and many other masterpieces from Alice Toklas, Gertrude's companion for years. Miss Stein will be the paintings to Miss Toklas for her lifetime, then they pass to Danny and his sister.

Having snagged the most sensational child actress of the day in Hayley Mills, Walt Disney has now come up with another catch of equal worth in Pamela Franklin, the little girl who was so good in "The Innocents" and is equally good in "The Lion."

Walt will star Pamela in a movie "The Horse Without a Head," a story of several children who catch robbers after they hide their loot in the head of a hobby horse. He'll start the movie in England in May. I wish Walt were going to make it right here. He's done so much for children with his movies, it would be nice if he could help the whole industry by making "The Horse Without a Head" at his Burbank Studio.

An apartment is being readied for Tarita in Malibu. She will return here in May to prepare for a tour with "Mutiny on the Bounty."

Marlon Brando, who naturally saw Tarita when he was in Tahiti, missed his plane and was three days late getting on "The Ugly American" set at Universal-International. After he returned, Marlon took 20 friends to a private screening of "Mutiny on the Bounty," and one of them tells me it will be his greatest success. Mrs. James Norman Hall, who lives in Tahiti and is the widow of one of the authors, will be MGM's guest at the premiere of "Mutiny on the Bounty."

New Orleans publisher George Healey made two speeches in San Diego on his experiences in Russia, and while he was in Los Angeles for 24 hours Margaret Ettinger gave a cocktail party for his close friends. He brought with him a copy of a song printed in his newspaper that Jimmy McHugh and Ned Washington had written for Mardi Gras week and everybody sang it.

Lorena Nidorf, who leaves this week for London, brought her house guests, Carroll and Helen Doyle, Frank McCarthy, an old friend, and Rupert Allen stopped in on their way to a dinner for Mary Lasker, and Ross Hunter, Jacques Mapes, Mecca Graham and Jill Jackson (formerly on

Secrets Of Charm by John Robert Powers

Spring-Cleaning? Throw Away Your Tensions!

This spring, clean the clutter out of your life — then, watch and see how your attitude toward everyday living grows as bright as your surroundings.

Start with the most practical project of them all. You'll need time and strength to devote to cleaning and reorganizing your household — so release yourself from a few of those outside obligations. Take a "sabbatical leave" for a time. By cutting down on the need for committee errands, telephone calls and meetings, you can catch up on your rest — and your perspective. Later on, you can concentrate on comparing the worth of these ventures — and rejoice only the ones that suit you best, ones you can handle easily without too much disruption to your primary obligations to yourself, your family and home. Don't be afraid to say no when you must: your physical and mental health come first.

Now, with your time expanded to spend on fewer activities (enabling you to do a better job on each of them), turn your attention to the chatters that chain you to your dearest drudgery at home. Do you really have to keep all the odds and ends you have collected?

Check those drawers and closets, those shelves and boxes, that attic and basement! You know in your heart that most of these items — worn, broken, outdated — you'll never have fixed at all. Even things that are worth money are of little value to you unless you are using them.

Think of the space they take up. Think of the fretting you waste on them.

Think seriously about selling them, giving them away or throwing them out entirely.

With more space and fewer space-robbars, you'll find your housekeeping to be a lot easier and more organized. A systematic survey of your wardrobe and grooming aids should help in improving your appearance, too.

Excess weight is unnecessary, too. Try to part yourself from it by following the advice in "Your Beauty Diet!" — a pamphlet that can be yours for just 10¢ and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to me, John Robert Powers, c/o this newspaper.

Declarer's attention was focused on the wrong suit in today's hand and the loss that resulted ran into several figures. His blind spot took the form of a common bridge affliction which bears a little investigation.

North had a sound opening bid of two no trump holding 22 high card points. South decided that if his partner had three aces he was willing to undertake a slam contract.

South should have concentrated his original efforts on the diamond suit since it must provide the source for his 12th trick. On the king of clubs he should discard the deuce of diamonds. After drawing trump, he cashes the king and ace of diamonds and ruffs a third round in his hand. The king of hearts provides access to the dummy to ruff out East's queen of diamonds, and establish the seven for a discard of declarer's losing heart.

West Virginia Organizes New Manpower Unit

Utilization
To Be Stressed

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—David L. Francis, Huntington, president of Princess Coal Co., was named chairman Tuesday of Gov. W. W. Barron's newly-formed manpower utilization advisory committee.

Miles Stanley, president of the West Virginia Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, was named vice chairman and Director Clement Bassett of the State Department of Employment Security, was named secretary.

Barron's press secretary, Con Hardman, speaking for the governor who was unable to attend the organizational meeting, said the new committee has "a great importance to the state," and through it "people of West Virginia may be able to make a greater contribution to the productivity of the state."

"The governor feels this is one of the most important committees in connection with West Virginia government created in recent times," Hardman said.

Barron said earlier he thought the group could go a long way toward helping to solve the state's high school "dropout" problem. Barron also asked the committee to look closely at the new federal manpower utilization law to see how West Virginia can benefit from it.

He also asked the group to see what it could do about a strong job-placement program for graduates of vocational retraining schools.

The committee also decided to study out-migration of the state's population, rural areas as affected by manpower problems, community efforts and education.

Preston Light Co. Hearing Concludes

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The Public Service Commission completed a hearing Tuesday on a proposed rate increase sought by Preston County Light & Power Co. and took the matter under consideration.

The case first was opened last Jan. 29 but had been continued until Monday, when additional testimony was taken, and held over through Tuesday. The firm is seeking a rate boost totaling $74,000 annual, and said the increase is needed to meet an increase in the wholesale price of electricity it purchases from Preston County Light & Power Co.

The utility serves about 2,270 customers in the Preston County area around Mazon town.

W. Va. Teachers Get Fellowships

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three West Virginia teachers were among recipients Tuesday of 300 summer fellowships for secondary school teachers of science and mathematics awarded by the National Science Foundation.

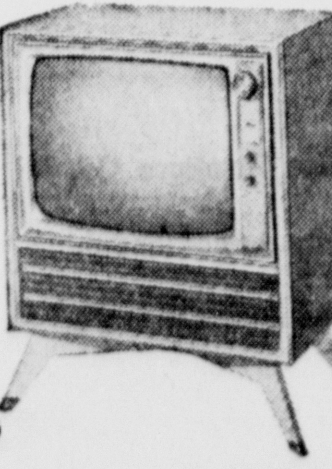

Biology fellowships were awarded Weldon W. Boone, Hinton, for West Virginia University, and Elise C. Hoover, Morgantown, for Arizona State University, and a mathematics fellowship was granted Dix E. Manning, Beaver, Raleigh County, at the University of Tennessee.

Disarmament
And Reality

Can the world disarm? The United States keeps trying.

In 1946 it proposed the Baruch Plan, under which no nation would have manufactured, owned or used nuclear weapons. The U. S. has a long record of advocating world peace and world disarmament, and it is a sincere, if naive, record.

America has tried, and it has failed. Disarmament attempts on a large scale have always failed. Nations have gone to disarmament conferences, because nobody will admit being against them. But once there they have sought national advantage that would strengthen their relative war-making potential.

Nations with big navies wanted land armies reduced; nations with big armies wanted navies sunk; nations relying on air power were for navy and army reduction.

That's the way it used to be, and the way it still is. Take Russia's proposal for nuclear disarmament. This is simply a proposal for the unilateral nuclear disarmament of the West. It is complicated by proposals for the dismantling of Western bases and the weakening of Western alliances, without corresponding actions by the Communist bloc.

The proposal would have been suspect, in any case, because of the manner in which it was unveiled. Western negotiators anxiously explored Communist viewpoints in advance of the conference's opening. They were not told about it. It was released to the world in a great publicity blast. This approach convinced experienced Western diplomats that Russia simply intended to use the disarmament conference for propaganda.

What makes Russia's whole disarmament stand unrealistic, if not phony, is that it is hopeless to attempt disarmament except among nations that want to be friends and good neighbors. Russia wants the West to disarm so it will be unable to resist burial by the Communists.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky
The Right To Be Stupid

One of the curiosities of a free society is that a human being is entitled to exhibit his stupidities as long as his conduct does not produce violence in or upon others. In a word, a man may say that he hates me, but he must not show his hatred by an act of force or violence. So, I have a letter from one who is apparently a European in origin, who living here, cannot understand our ways. The writer has this to say: "I must appeal to you to explain the daring and offensive situation of (George Lincoln) Rockwell, head of the American Nazi Party, being allowed to speak on April 20th right in New York City. I have tried to understand democracy and freedom of speech in the United States, but on the one hand we fought to destroy the ideals of Nazism and on the other hand permission is granted by the U.S. Supreme Court for Rockwell to speak to arouse hatred and violence, that is beyond my comprehension."

As long as Rockwell limits himself to talking, he is well within his rights. Nazism is abhorrent to most Americans, as Communism is offensive to them. But we have not yet reached the degradation of our history that we fear such disruptions, and they are not rare in our history.

It is different from the situation in Germany when Hitler arose. Germany was a conquered country; the Germans a proud people brought to heel by the fortunes of war. Not only was the economy of Germany broken but the spirit of the nation suffered from defeat. Hitler, by impudence and to a degree by realizing that other countries were in equal difficulties, offered Germany hope and reconstruction.

Hitler made two tragic mistakes which are not unusual for dictators whose self-will grows beyond their purposes and capacity. His diversion from political action to anti-Semitism and the revival of Teutonic paganism was inevitable, arising from his political need to be recognized as a man-god. Napoleon was smarter; he went about his business of plundering and reconstruction without becoming involved in religious matters and in the inhumanities which before Hitler had weakened the Spain of Ferdinand and Isabella. Just as Hitler pursued the concepts of Houston Stewart Chamberlain on the subject of Aryanism, so Isabella permitted Torquemada to ruin Spain in an effort to establish a monolithic empire. Khrushchev is trying that now in the Soviet Universal State, but with surprisingly little success.

Hitler's second error was to tease the United States into coming to the rescue of the European nations and Russia and China. Hitler's intelligence must have been surprisingly poor. He never understood the American people at all.

He read numerous attacks on the President and assumed that they represented resistance to war. He noted that he could buy persons here to conduct anti-Semitic campaigns and some did it of their free will, but he did not realize that in war all Americans, whatever color or creed, go into the trenches and fight for Old Glory even if they oppose the war.

So, my correspondent can be sure that Rockwell can go on making speeches and that his opponents will make speeches, and maybe there will be rotten eggs and spoiled tomatoes and a few fist fights, but mostly we shall laugh. To most Americans, he looks like a funny man and what he says does not fit any situation in this country.

His kind of exhibitionism makes very little impression upon our people, just as all movements of hate are offensive to our people who generally get along with their neighbors of all kinds. To get along with folks, it is not necessary to marry them. It is only necessary that we respect their rights under the law and that they respect our rights.

The writer finds it difficult to understand democracy. I would suggest that it not be tried. The word, democracy, is very confusing and should be used most precisely. It is better to describe our country as one in which the rights of the individual man are greater than the rights of government, and one of those rights is to be ridiculous, so long as it does not hurt anybody. Let Rockwell talk! If he gets tough, our police will know what to do.

B-70 Fight's True Issue Is McNamara's Authority

WASHINGTON

For sheer richness of human and political meaning, this town has not seen anything quite like the B-70 row for a very, very long time.

The surface facts of the row are familiar enough by now. The Chief of Air Staff, Gen. Curtis LeMay, wants to spend somewhere between $5 and $10 billion on these heavy bombers of the new generation. The House Armed Service Committee, headed by the powerful old "Swamp Fox," Rep. Carl Vinson, has taken the unprecedented step of "directing" the Defense Department to give Gen. LeMay what he wants.

Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara is grimly determined not to give Gen. LeMay what he wants, because he is convinced the money will be wasted. The result has been a direct clash between McNamara and LeMay, two of the most formidable personalities to appear in the U. S. government in the last quarter-century.

The clash has produced good stories, as might be expected. At one moment, the Secretary of Defense, who can deploy facts and figures on the scale of the Normandy landings, was trying to overwhelm LeMay with all the facts and figures unfavorable to the B-70. The General, not an easy man to overwhelm, barely removed his famous cigar in order to answer, with firm finality: "I never believe any statistics except my own."

Besides good stories, this clash has also come close to producing exceedingly serious results. It may yet do so, in truth, if the "directive" of Rep. Vinson is not watered down somewhere along the long legislative road. Ten days ago, McNamara was within an ace of asking for LeMay's resignation, even though he has truthfully described the General as "one of the two or three great fighting leaders of this American generation."

Here, you might suppose, is drama enough for any governmental episode, but beneath the surface this particular episode has two additional, almost invisible themes which are really more dramatic than the clash itself.

One is the theme, ever-recurring in non-fossilized military services, of the conflict of wills involved in changes of doctrine. Cavalrymen ran the U. S. Army, and cavalry doctrine was U. S. Army doctrine, for instance, until the retirement, in the late '30s, of Gen. Malin Craig. Then Franklin Delano Roosevelt, following the advice which Gen. Pershing gave the President from his sickbed, reached down among the very junior generals to make George C. Marshall Chief of Staff in succession to Craig.

The result was a change in doctrine, ending a long conflict. The ideas of the General Staff officers and the War College-trained men replaced the ideas of the cavalrymen when Roosevelt chose Marshall instead of the cavalry candidate, the forgotten Gen. Hugh Drum.

In the U. S. Navy, the inter-war years were marked by an equally ferocious conflict of wills and doctrine. But the battleship admirals only surrendered to the carrier admirals when the Prince of Wales and the Repulse went down in the Gulf of Siem.

In the Air Force today, by the same token, it is noteworthy that the Air Staff's B-70 brief was pre-

PROGRAM'S END—One of the unique political television programs has been jointly conducted by Pennsylvania's two senators. Though of opposing political parties, Sens. Joseph S. Clark, Democrat, and Hugh Scott, Republican, have regularly appeared on the same Pennsylvania network, show and demonstrated in rough and tumble debates how each could turn their joint venture to individual advantage.

Actually the two are good friends and developed a lot of humor as well as political acrimony in the course of their performances for the voters of their state. However, they've now conducted their last joint broadcast. Clark is running for re-election and Scott is seeking the governorship of the state. So, with their interests diverging, it's become each man for himself.

NEW MOTTO—Sen. Oren Long, Hawaiian Democrat, is urging that all Washington orators take to heart a motto he credits to Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman. It runs like this:

"He that thinketh by the inch / And talketh by the yard / Should be kicked by the foot."

Long, on the basis of his political service in Washington, is convinced that the capital should be nicknamed the "windy city," and that Chicago, present holder of the appellation, has been much maligned.

Ingredients Of A Formula For Happiness

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

never has been ill to assess the importance of this point.

Affection for and from family and friends also is a priceless ingredient. Some persons do not know the meaning of affection. On the surface they appear comfortable and content but they lack the joy of love of their fellow men.

Leisure must be added to the formula. This means, rest, play, travel, and other purposeful or profitable forms of relaxation—not loafing, sitting in a rocking chair with nothing to do, or aimless wandering.

Accomplishment is the last but not the least of the prerequisites for happiness. Centuries of experience has taught us that most humans are unhappy unless they have something useful to do. There is no greater satisfaction than that which comes from contributing, doing a job well, and being industrious. The master word is work and it is unfortunate that the growing tendency to do as little as possible is depriving so many people in our labor force of the gratification of accomplishment. It is frightening to watch the people of this country lose their greatest heritage and greatest source of satisfaction—productivity.

BUTCHER HAS GOUT

G. F. writes: I'm a butcher and have to go into the icebox often. Could this be responsible for gout, which I have had for eight weeks?

REPLY
No. Gout probably is inherited and is aggravated by the meat taken into the stomach rather than the meat lifted from the refrigerator. Pain and swelling of a gouty joint respond to colchicine and probenecid within a week unless the disease is far advanced. Eight weeks is a long time and I question the diagnosis or treatment.

PUZZLING SYMPTOMS

W. L. writes: Our doctor can't find out what is wrong with our 15-year-old daughter. She has headaches, vomiting, spells, and several nosebleeds every day. Would you have any idea what is the matter with her?

REPLY
If your doctor doesn't know after a thorough examination, I doubt if I could be of any help. Why not ask for a consultation?

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

George Braithwaite, up to here in Pentagon longwindedness, thinks this is the way Washington big brass might have delivered three reasonably famous declarations:

1. It is my command that we relegate the torpedoes to perdition. Proceed at maximum celerity at 119 degrees NNE on our erstwhile established course.

2. Let no homo sapien engage in the firing of his non-nuclear weapon until the precise moment when the sclera and cornea of the enemy are visible.

3. My expressed desire is to receive not more than one of the following: (A) Complete freedom, entailing all its pleasures and responsibilities, or (B) The loss of my life in a manner to be determined at a later date.

Two clergymen were talking animatedly at the corner of Madison and Fiftieth when a third man of the cloth appeared. The first two looked pleasantly surprised. One stuck out his hand and exclaimed heartily, "Well, speak of the devil. . . ."

Jackie's Trip To India Proved Successful Despite Mistake

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Inside fact about the current glamor trip of Jacqueline Kennedy is that it got started by accident and was almost killed by her husband. He preferred that she stay at home.

What happened was that Prime Minister Nehru of India, sitting beside Mrs. Kennedy at a White House dinner last November, remarked: "You must come to India."

She replied: "I'd love to."

Mrs. K. thought no more about it, but Nehru did. He went home, began conferring with the U. S. ambassador, Ken Galbraith, shortly sent a long and detailed itinerary for the First Lady. It took the President by surprise and he got on the telephone to Galbraith to discourage the trip.

Galbraith, however, is not a man easily discouraged. He was not discouraged when he first plumped for Kennedy for President, a year before the convention and when most observers didn't think JFK had a chance. And not being one who surrenders easily, Galbraith hopped on a plane and came to Washington to sell Kennedy on the Indian trip for Jackie. He succeeded.

Then President Ayub of Pakistan got into the act and invited Jackie to come to his country. The implication was that if she went to India without visiting its bitter rival, Pakistan, that candlelit dinner on the lawn at Mount Vernon would count for nothing.

The Indian attack on Goa also complicated things and delayed the trip. Finally, the President looked over Jackie's itinerary and decided it was too arduous. He trumped up the idea that she had sinus trouble, which she didn't have, and cut out several side trips.

All reports are, however, that Jackie is having a wonderful time and winning a lot of friends for the USA, in an area where we need friends and where Khrushchev and Bulganin once spent two weeks on a very successful barnstorming trip. Maybe Mrs. Kennedy should travel more.

Tel Aviv To Albany??

The Republicans have quietly started grooming an eventual candidate for governor of New York in a manner that confirms the suspicion of Sen. Bill Fulbright of Arkansas.

Two years ago when Ogden Reid of the famous New York Herald Tribune family was up for confirmation as ambassador to Israel, Senator Fulbright opposed him on the grounds that he was using the Israeli ambassadorship as a stepping stone to Albany. The diplomatic post in Israel would help him win the big Jewish vote in running for Governor of New York, Fulbright suspected.

Reid, however, denied this. He said he had no political ambitions and no foreseeable plans to run for Governor of New York or Mayor of New York or, he implied, any other New York political post.

But up in Westchester County the other day, Edwin Michaelian, Republican boss of the county, quietly served notice on GOP Congressman Edwin B. Dooley that he should "move over" and let Ogden Reid run instead. He said Dooley could become chairman of the New York state fitness program under Rockefeller at $18,000 a year.

Dooley is an unspectacular, conscientious Republican who was an All-America footballer at Dartmouth, wrote sports for the old New York Sun, even wrote a football novel, "Under The Goal Posts." He has served faithfully in Congress for six years, but now the party bosses say he should move over in favor of young Reid. So far Dooley has declined.

It looks as if Senator Fulbright was right after all.

Is Hitlerism Coming Back?

For the first time since the war, a meeting is being held on American soil where the revision of German borders along Hitler lines is due for discussion. The meeting being held in Chicago this week has already raised alarms in Poland and Czechoslovakia partly because one of the leading West German revisionists, Bundestag member Weufel Jaksch, will be one of the speakers.

NEW DELHI, India — You see it first over purple shrubs and it looks like a white bubble floating in a sunny blue sky. It is still a few miles off, but this is the Taj Mahal, the greatest tribute ever built to a wife. It is listed as one of the wonders of the world, and it lies off the edge of the city of Agra, 125 miles south of here.

It is made of white marble and it required 18 years and 20,000 men to build. The finest writers of the past four centuries have failed to describe it, each one wallowing in superlatives. The Hindu writer R. C. Arora came as close as any when he wrote "This is the stage at which the architect's work ends and the jeweler begins."

The Shah Jahan was a Mogul emperor at Agra in the early 17th century. He had a wife, and she had died. For awhile, he was afraid to trust his heart, but, when he met a Persian princess named Mumtaz Mahal, he fell so pathetically in love that he not only married her at once, but took her to the wars with him and even consulted her on matters of state.

He was a young man with dark, almost oriental eyes, a black beard, and a long mustache which curved down along the side of his jaw. Mahal was much younger than he, a fairly plain looking woman with dark brown eyes, dark skin, and an insatiable love for her husband. They were married in 1612 and, in 13 years they had 14 children, including two sets of twins.

The Shah was at war in Burhanpur when the last child — a girl — was born in his tent. The queen smiled at her baby, "looked be-seechingly at her lord, the Shah," and died. A good part of the Shah died with her. He was never happy after that, although he was condemned to live a long time.

It was as though he felt that, in life, he had not shown sufficient appreciation of her and so, in death, he was determined to overdo it. The Shah called in the best architects, the best designers, construction workers and jewellers and marble artisans to start work on a mausoleum fit for his queen.

A design executed by Mohamad Isa Afandi of Turkey was built in miniature and accepted by the Shah. It consisted of a huge white marble "onion," surmounting scal-

Jaksch is one of the most active German leaders in demanding that the Sudetenland be taken away from Czechoslovakia and given to Germany, also that Upper Silesia be taken from Poland and returned to Germany.

It was the seizure of the Sudetenland by Hitler in 1938 that raised the first signal that World War II was imminent, and it was the seizure of Poland by Hitler that precipitated World War II.

The Chicago meeting is held under the auspices of the Foundation for Foreign Affairs and the Herder Institute of Marburg, West Germany, for the purpose of discussing east European affairs.

This is what makes east Europeans jittery about U. S. support for West Germany and makes them adamant against any nuclear arms in West German hands.

B-70 Lobbying

Both Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and Congressman Carl Vinson of Georgia have been wooing supporters behind the scenes in their battle as to whether Congress should or should not vote money for the B-70 which the Kennedy administration says it doesn't need.

McNamara, age 45, went around to see crusty Congressman Clarence Cannon of Missouri, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, to try to get him to block the money. The 83-year-old Cannon was inclined to stick with his 79-year-old colleague from Georgia.

Vinson meanwhile went around to see Southern friends on his own Armed Services Committee, and at a two-hour closed-door argument over the B-70 it appeared that he had won some support from Ed Hebert of Louisiana and Mendel Rivers of South Carolina.

So many Democrats cross-examined McNamara, however, that GOP Congressman Leon Gavin of Pennsylvania demanded to know if Vinson planned to confine the questioning to Democrats and "cut off Republicans." He asked McNamara: "Do you really have any plans to make use of this additional money?"

"Quite frankly, we do not anticipate any need for the additional amount," said McNamara.

"In that case, the House Appropriations Committee might not appropriate the money, even if we authorized it," suggested Gavin. "It's happened before. What makes you think they won't do it to us again, Mr. Chairman?"

"I'm not overlooking that possibility," replied the wily Vinson who did not let on that Appropriations Chairman Cannon was on his side. "However, that's their responsibility. We're doing our job here. Regardless of what the Secretary says, I'm still convinced that missiles aren't the whole answer to our future defense. The manned bomber will continue to play a vital role." (Copyright 1962, By The Bell Syndicate) loped marble which looked like Brussels lace. This was framed in a big marble court, on the edges of which stood four slender minarets. In front, was a long narrow pool of water.

The Shah spent scores of millions of rupees on the project and, in 1631, 20,000 masons, sculptors, mosaicists, calligraphers and draftsmen began the work. The whole was to give an effect of matchless symmetry and, when it was completed, the queen was placed in exact center under a double dome of marble.

The Moslem rulers of the world sent rare gems, and the Shah bought thousands of his own. Some were placed on top of the big dome, to catch the silver of the full moon. Some were placed atop the casket. Others were part of the lace screen of solid marble he ordered built in an octagon 200 feet around the queen's casket. The marble was pierced and made to look like lace.

Taj means crown, so the Taj Mahal is the crown of Mumtaz Mahal. When it was finished, the Shah erected a big sandstone building as a fitting entrance gate at the far end of the pool. There, in time, the Queen's maids of honor and a spinster governess to her children were buried.

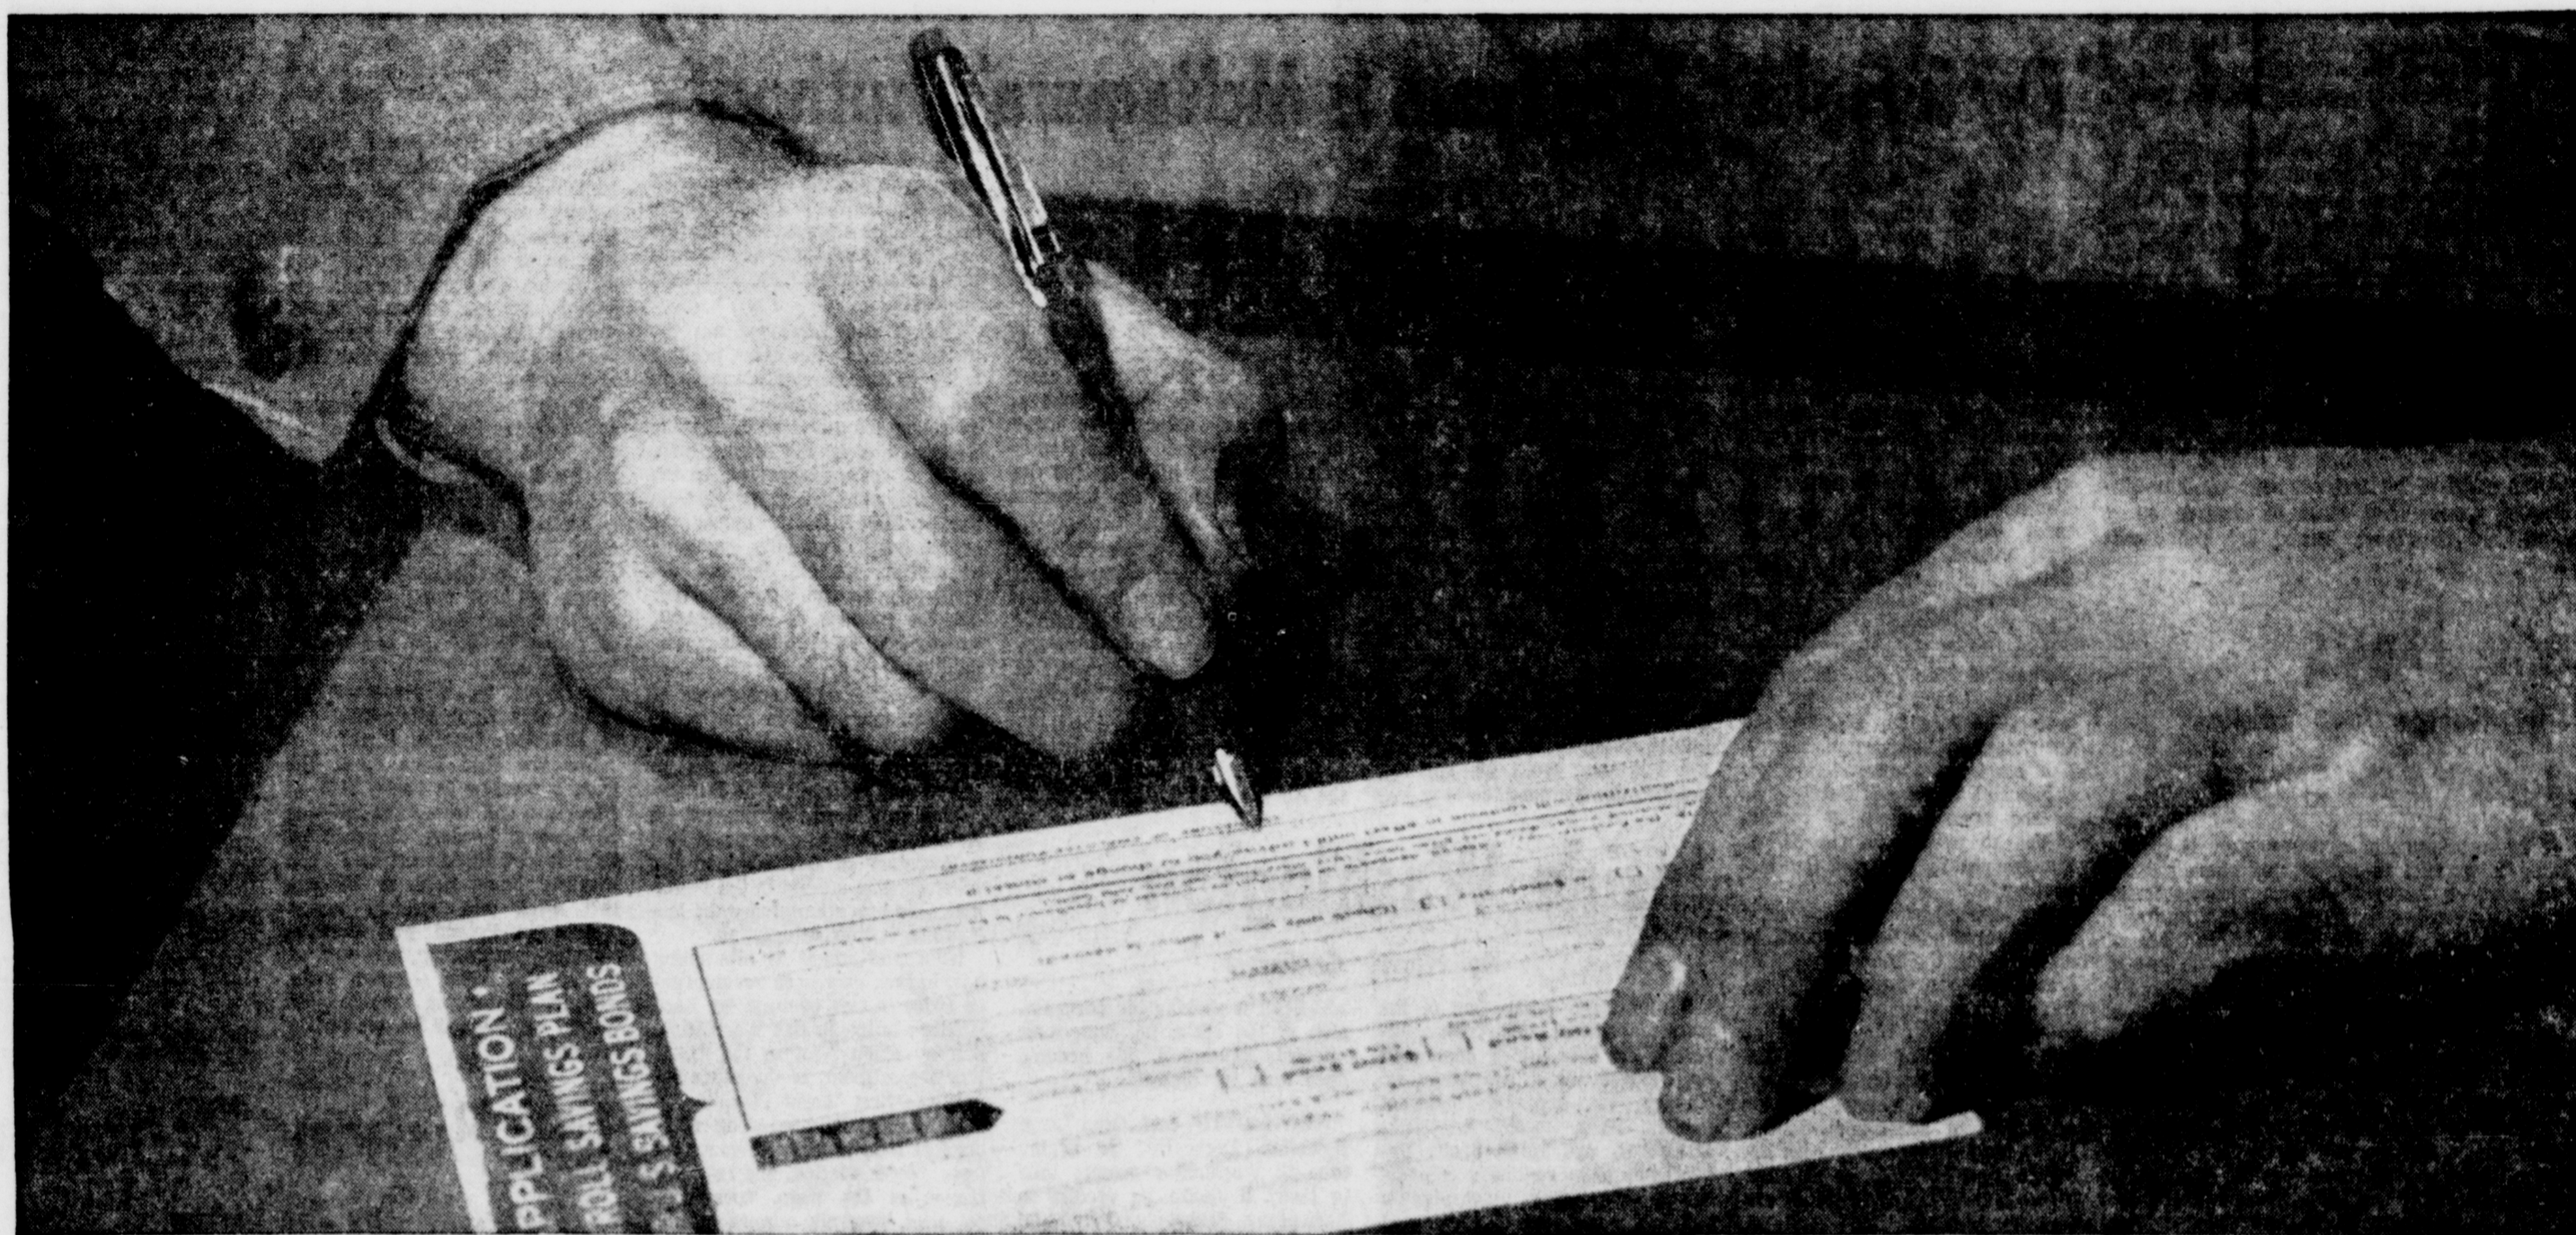

When the work was done, the 14 children had grown up. One son of his love for Mahal conspired against the Shah. The boy took the throne from his father and threw him into prison. There, the old man rotted for 14 years before he died. His thoughts, to my way of thinking, are worth more than the Taj.

We walked down past the pool, catching the reflection of the Taj Mahal in the still water. Cypresses are planted in solemn rows on each side as a sign of mourning. We walked up the marble steps, and an attendant stooped and placed felt slippers over our shoes, so that we would not defile the marble floors.

Around the arched door, words of the Koran are inscribed in black mosaic so that, as the eye travels up and around the top, the words always appear to be the same size and spaced in the same way. Inside, the octagon of walls is peopled with thousands of marble flowers, carefully etched in bas relief from huge blocks of stone.

How America's workers save while buying a share in their country

Almost $40 million in U.S. Savings Bonds are purchased automatically every week through the Payroll Savings Plan by America's wage earners.

This is not a recent development. Members of organized labor have supported the Savings Bond Program since it began 20 years ago. That's because so many of them have found the Payroll Savings Plan a painless way to achieve their dreams—a new home, a happier retirement, education for the youngsters and a better life for the whole family.

A workable plan for those "payday frustrations"

All you have to do to start on the plan is sign up once with your employer. He sets aside whatever amount you say, buys your Bonds and delivers them to you—automatically. The result is you save some money every payday before you get a chance to spend it. And soon you don't even miss the amount that's set aside for you.

Invest with absolutely no risk

You can't lose the money you invest in Series E Savings Bonds. The Government guarantees it to grow 3 3/4 % in 7 1/4 years. You can get your money with interest at any time. And if your Bonds are destroyed, you get new ones free.

Every Bond you buy is a step toward a secure personal future. What's more, every Bond is a share in a stronger America. Why not begin buying your shares today?

American Labor heartily endorses the Savings Bond Program!

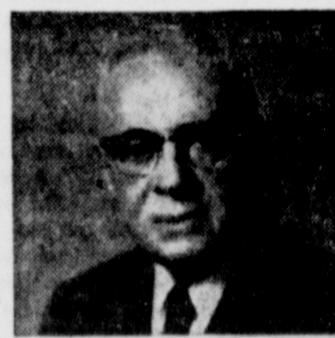

GEORGE MEANY,
President,
AFL-CIO, says:

"In these critical times, the safest investment for any American, and especially American workers, is United States Savings Bonds. At the same time Bond purchases help keep America strong and free."

GEORGE E. LEIGHTY,
Chairman, Railway Labor
Executives Association, says:

"The most efficient and best respected workers are those who have formed the habit of saving regularly. There is no better way to do this than by buying Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan."

THOMAS KENNEDY,
President, The United Mine Workers of America, says:

"Labor is glad to lend its support to the Savings Bond Program of the Treasury Department. This easy method of saving has made it possible for millions of wage earners to build up financial reserves."

You save more than money with

U.S. Savings Bonds

Litton's, Devon Club To Clash For Senior Title In "Y" Tourney

Lover's Leap 115-Pounders Lose, 51-47

Green's Gladiators, Snyder's Advance To Tonight's Finals

Litton's Amoco Service Center of Hagerstown and the Devon Club will clash for the Senior Unlimited Class crown in the feature attraction of tonight's championship round in the 17th annual Central YMCA - Jaycees Basketball Tournament.

Litton's gained the finals by downing Johnson's Grocery, 63-55, while the Devon Club edged Robbie's Plumbers, 53-49, in a pair of Senior Unlimited semi-final contests staged last night at the "Y".

Tonight's Finals In "Y" Tourney

6:00—Ced's Rascals vs. Snyder's Potato Chips (115).
7:00—Devon Club Dunkers vs. Police Boys Club (135).
8:00—Green's Gladiators vs. Snyder's Potato Chips (115-Pound Division).
9:00—Littton's Amoco Service Center vs. Devon Club (Sr. Unlimited).

Other title battles tonight will pit Ced's Rascals against Snyder's Potato Chips in the 115-Pound Division; Police Boys Club and the Devon Club Dunkers in the 135-Pound Class; and Cresapton Cut Rate vs. Green's Golden Gladiators in the Junior Unlimited final. The opening game will get underway at 6 o'clock.

Big Don Moran hooped a pair of fouls and banged in a field goal in the last eight seconds of play to give the Devon Club its triumph over Robbie's in last night's final game. The foul broke a 49-49 tie and assured the Luke organization of two finalists in tonight's championship play. The Devon Club Dunkers previously reached the finals in the 135-Pound Class.

Moran High Scorer

The Senior Unlimited fray was close all the way with never more than five or six points separating the two teams. Robbie's knotted the count with eight seconds left, but Moran's final spurge iced the verdict for the Devon Club.

Moran poured in 18 points for the winners while George Connolly tallied 15 for Robbie's. Litton's victory over Johnson's Grocery also was a close-fought game in which a 46-41 lead by the winners at the end of the third period was overcome by the Grocery men who tied the score at 48-48 with five minutes to play.

Litton's moved ahead to stay, however, by scoring three quick baskets on a fast-break and Johnson's was never able to recover. The Hagerstown team's triumph was registered at the foul line where the Service Center tossers hit on 27-32 free throws after being outscored in the field, 22-18. High man for Litton's was Melzer with 23 points while Bill Bauserman had 19 for Johnson's.

The last of the 1961 defending champions fell by the wayside in yesterday's opening encounter when Snyder's Potato Chips eliminated Lover's Leap Esso, 51-47, in the 115-pound class.

The loss by Lover's Leap snapped a succession of six straight championships captured by the Esso floor men in the division and means that new champions will be crowned in each of the four divisions in tonight's finals.

Lover's Leap jumped into a 15-4 lead in the first quarter but couldn't hold the margin against the determined Snyder's quint which rallied and caught the defending champions in the final period.

Doug Shook tallied 22 points for Snyder's including a perfect 12-12 at the foul line. He was aided by Dave Bruce who connected for eight field goals and 19 points for the winners.

Win At Foul Line

Snyder's winning margin came at the foul line. Outscored 18-17 from the field the winners converted 17-18 free throws to 11-13 for Lover's Leap as both teams showed exceptionally good accuracy at the 15-foot stripe.

In a Junior Unlimited Class semi-final match, Green's Golden Gladiators — making their first appearance in the tournament after drawing a first round bye — easily turned back Dom's Deacons, 55-26.

Playing the second game on last night's card, Green's broke open a close ball game in the second half. Leading 18-12 at intermission the winners outscored Dom's 17-6 in the third quarter to take an insurmountable 35-18 lead.

Billy Davis tallied 17 points to pace Green's attack while Gary Siebert had eight for Dom's.

All-tournament teams will be selected after each of the four finals tonight. Trophies will be awarded to players selected for all-tournament recognition.

Also to be presented tonight will be trophies to the winner and runner-up in each division, individual prizes to each player on the winning teams, trophies for sportsmanship and for the outstanding player in both the junior and senior sections and scoring awards.

Pistons Cop Series

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Detroit Pistons won the National Basketball Association's Western Division playoff Tuesday night by beating the Cincinnati Royals 112-111 despite a desperate last-minute rally.

The Pistons will now meet the Los Angeles Lakers in a best-of-seven playoff. Detroit won the best-of-five playoff, 3-1.

Duquesne Springs Upset, Wins Over Bradley, 88-85

Somerset And Benec Sparkle As Dukes Go To NIT Semi-Finals

NEW YORK (UPI) — St. John's opened its quest for a fourth National Invitation Tournament basketball championship by beating Holy Cross, 80-74, Tuesday night and Duquesne upset top-seeded Bradley, 88-85, to earn semifinal berths.

St. John's and Duquesne will meet in one semifinal Thursday night while Dayton plays Loyola of Chicago in the other.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Duquesne led by stubby Willie Somerset and lanky Paul Benec, sprang the biggest upset of the 1962 National Invitation Basketball Tournament Tuesday night by defeating top-seeded Bradley, 88-85, to win a berth in Thursday night's semifinals.

Somerset Scores 28

The jump-shooting, 5-10 Somerset accounted for 28 points, 20 of them during the second half, and 6-5 Benec contributed 21 as the Dukes eliminated Bradley, which was ranked sixth nationally by the United Press International.

Amazingly accurate free throw shooting played an important role in Duquesne's victory. The Dukes converted 20 of 20 free throw attempts in the second half and missed only three of 27 attempts during the entire game.

All-American Chet Walker scored 36 points, 25 of them during the second half. However, the Bradley team as a whole, which had a hard regular season and was beaten out by Cincinnati for the Missouri Valley Conference championship, did not appear "up" for this game.

Benec scored seven field goals, six of them on long one-handed set shots, during the first half as the Dukes opened a 46-37 lead.

Walker pulled Bradley to within four points of the lead before Somerset and Benec combined on a 12-point streak that pulled the Dukes away to a 61-47 advantage. Walker Makes It Close

Houston's Ban Of Stadium Lost NFL Franchise

Baltimore Owner Testifies In Suit

BALTIMORE (UPI)—The city of Houston's refusal to lease its stadium for professional football was cited in federal court Tuesday as the big reason Minneapolis won a National Football League franchise.

Owner Carroll Rosenbloom of the Baltimore Colts offered the explanation to Judge Roszel Thompson who is hearing the American Football League's $10,000,000 antitrust suit against the National Football League.

Rosenbloom took the stand Tuesday as the trial entered its fourth week and he testified on the background of National Football League expansion. He said much of the league discussion of expansion and actual league accord on the plan to expand came at two meetings in Philadelphia in 1959 when team owners gathered for the funeral of Bert Bell, the late NFL commissioner.

The Minneapolis franchise is one of the key issues in the case, with the AFL arguing that it had to award a team to less lucrative Oakland, Cal., when the NFL beat it to the punch in awarding a franchise to Minneapolis.

Rosenbloom testified that he understood the big reason the NFL went into Minneapolis was because it failed in efforts to grant a franchise in Houston. He said the league initially agreed to grant its first two new franchises to Dallas and Houston.

Rosenbloom said when the city of Houston blocked stadium use the league then turned its attention to Minneapolis.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Johnny Kerr limited Wilt Chamberlain to 29 points Tuesday night as Syracuse beat Philadelphia 106-99 and evened their Eastern Division NBA semifinal playoff series at two games each.

Pittsburgh Steelers Play In Kiwanis Benefit Game Here April 7

Westernport Legion Team Is Opponent

Proceeds Of Game At Allegany High For Sunshine Camp

Local sports fans will have an opportunity to see members of the Pittsburgh Steelers football team in action, but on the basketball court, at the Allegany High School gymnasium on Saturday, April 7.

The Pittsburgh Steelers basketball team will meet the Westernport American Legion, undefeated winner of the County Men's League championship this year.

This game will be sponsored by the Cumberland Kiwanis Club as a benefit for Sunshine Camp, which the club has sponsored annually for deserving boys and girls since 1940.

It will be the third successive year that the Kiwanis Club has sponsored a basketball game for the benefit of Sunshine Camp. The past two seasons, the Maryland College All-Stars were brought to Cumberland at the end of the campaign to play the Central YMCA varsity team.

This year, through the efforts of Benjamin F. Haines, YMCA program director, the Steelers basketball team will appear. The team is composed of some of the outstanding football players who perform each fall with the Steelers in the National Football League.

Last season the Steelers won six of their 14 regular season games and missed out on an even split for the season when they lost their final contest.

Plan Foul Shooting Contest

Arrangements are being made to have a preliminary game starting at 7 p. m. April 7 as well as a foul-shooting contest.

Tickets will be available from members of the Kiwanis Club or at Central YMCA. They also will be available at the door the night of the game.

Francis C. Rohman Jr., as chairman of the Kiwanis finance committee, is general chairman of arrangements for the game.

Detroit Hurler Lost To Club

Neck Malignancy Shelves Sam Jones

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Medical tests have shown pitcher Sam Jones has a low-grade malignancy on his neck and the Detroit Tigers announced Tuesday he will be lost to the club for an indefinite period for special treatment.

The Tigers said Jones would not resume pitching until he completes a series of eight X-ray treatments recommended by doctors in Detroit's Ford Hospital.

Jones underwent minor surgery here three weeks ago for removal of two lymph nodes from his neck.

At that time, doctors said there was no malignancy. But a sample of the removed tissue was sent to Detroit, where doctors made additional tests, and said Jones has a low-grade malignancy.

Jones, 36, was one of the National League's top right-handers until last season when he was 8-8 with San Francisco.

Wynn Looks Good As Chisox Win, 2-1

Nellie Fox, the veteran Chicago second baseman, batted in the winning run with two outs in the 12th when he drove a bases-loaded single over the head of right fielder Frank Howard who was playing close and hoping for a play at the plate.

Bowie Track's Former Owners Named In Suit

Stockholders Claim Sale Price Too Low

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (AP)—A group of minority stockholders, who contend Bowie Race Course could have been sold for a higher price, filed suit against the former owners Tuesday in Prince Georges County Circuit Court.

Four owners of about 2,500 shares in the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association asked the court to appoint three disinterested persons to appraise the track "for the purpose of setting a true value on our stock."

The court gave the defendants 20 days in which to file a reply.

Bowie, one of three major thoroughbred tracks in Maryland, was sold to Patino Mines and Enterprises Consolidated, Inc., of Canada, for $5 million shortly before the current meeting opened Feb. 9.

Not Fair Price

"I'm firmly convinced that $5 million was not a fair price for the Bowie track and I believe $9.98 per share was not a fair price for our stock," said Samuel R. Zetzer of Baltimore, one of the minority stockholders. "Therefore, we refused payment."

Joining Zetzer in the move to secure a higher price for their holdings are his wife, Helen, the Sterling Trust Corporation and Stanley-Schurhardt, Inc.

Zetzer said he believes Bowie was sold for about one-half of its value.

"At the going rate of property in the track's location, where the Bel Air Estates were recently developed, the property of the plant alone is worth close to $4 million," he said.

"Also, we plan to prove from the figures provided by the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association itself that the racing dates allotted to Bowie are worth another $4 million."

Make Enormous Profit

"The only thing I can figure out," Zetzer said, "is that the new owners plan to liquidate the track in a year or two and thereby make a quick and enormous profit."

Thorn Posted 23.7 Average

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—Rod Thorn, West Virginia's second team All-American, led the Mountaineers to a 24-6 record this year in scoring 23.7 points per game and pulling down 12.1 rebounds, according to statistics released Tuesday.

Thorn, a 6-4 junior, was also the team leader in assists with 4.1 per contest. Four other Mountaineers scored in the double figures with Jim McCormick hitting at 15.4, Kenny Ward at 11.6, Tom Lowry with a 10.6 point per game average and Paul Miller with 10.4.

Gale Catlett, who moved into a starting berth late in the season, led in field goal shooting with a 45.1 percentage from the floor. Lowry was right behind Thorn in rebounding, pulling down 32.1 to Thorn's 35.1. McCormick was second in assists with 89.

In Wide Open N.L. Race Braves Have As Good Chance As Any, Claims Manager Tebbetts—And With Reason!

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series on the major league teams. Others will follow on this page daily.

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

BRADENTON, Fla.—They gave the Braves the Bird—Birdie Tebbetts—late last season, reaching upstairs for him, but it was too late, for the Milwaukeeans were already out of the pennant race.

Birdie, for 28 years a fixture in baseball as player and manager, had been the Redskins' executive vice president and he was taking over a club which had figured to win the pennant but had floundered in both, the early and late stages.

A bit more pudgy this year, Birdie still moves well in the talking field and recognizes that the National League is a wide open loop with his club rating as good a chance as the others.

"There are so many teams so close," he told us at camp here, "that I'd say the club that improves itself the most with good additions could take it all."

"We have a lot of solid players here but the most important thing in our business is to have an open mind and determine, anew, whether a player is as good as he was, has gone back or has improved."

Started Too Late

"I think this outfit started too late last year. It didn't hit the market until July and August. You can't get that far behind and expect to catch up."

"Our big problem is relief pitching and I think the team that gets the best relief pitching will win the marbles."

"Shortly after I took over last year we lost eight games in a row," Tebbetts frowned at the memory. "We were ahead in the late innings in most of them and then went on to lose them. I didn't like it, naturally, but I think it's always good to see a club when it's cold as well as hot."

Birdie will tell you he's loaded with starters. He has those great ones, Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, and he has Bob Buhl and Carlton Wiley. He has an established reliever in Don McMahon but he's got to find some help.

In the group which may help are Bob Hendley and Tony Cloninger, who pitched for the Braves part of last season and measured up well, and Ron Piche, the Canadian who was 14-7 at Vancouver and voted the outstanding pitcher in the Pacific Coast League.

Added to the hurling staff this season is a former big winner for the Chicago White Sox, Bob Shaw, who was 12-14 for the Sox and Kansas City last year.

Others who figure in the Braves' pitching picture are Cecil Butler, who was 9-11 at Louisville; Dennis Ribant, who had a record of 21 victories and only four losses last year while pitching for Austin and Quad City; Wade Blasingame, 6-3 at Boise, and Arnold Umbach, with Boise and Vancouver last year.

Have Many Veterans

The Braves have veteran players set at most every position, with those power hitters Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews and Joe Adcock back to bust the fences and Joe Torre, the rookie star last year, and Del Crandall back to do the catching.

Birdie is giving two young hopefuls, Amada Samuel, up from Louisville, and the $125,000 bonus beauty, Denis Menke, who was at Vancouver, a real shot at the shortstop spot. On hand to fill out the infield, of course, are Frank Boling and the aging Roy McMillan. Samuel and Menke both can play several positions and Menke is believed about ready to stick.

While there are seven outfielders on hand Birdie will tell you that "Hank Aaron will be in center field but I can't tell you who will play alongside him." Back are Lee Maye and Mack Jones. From Louisville, Jones is a fine prospect.

Also figured in the outfield position are Howie Bedell, a .327 hitter from Louisville; Len Gabrielson, who had a good year at Louisville, and Ethan Blackaby, a former Illinois football player who was at Boise and Yakima last year.

Hank Aaron's brother, Tommie, who hit .299 for Austin last year, is making an impression in camp. A first baseman, he also is figured for the outfield.

Could Pass Plank

The 1962 campaign projects two of the Braves' greates into new orbits. Spahn, who passed the 300-win mark last year, could move from 11th place in the list of all-time winningest pitchers to eighth with a 17-win season and could pass Eddie Plank as the all-time winningest lefthander in baseball history.

Mathews, overshadowed by the New York Yankees' M and M boys, now is ninth on the list of all-time home run hitters with 370, four behind Mantle, and could move into third place behind Mel Ott and Stan Musial as the N. L. record makers.

Bi-State Pony League Expands To Ten Teams

LaVale Clubs Are Added; 9th Season Will Open June 1

The Bi-State Pony Baseball League will launch its ninth campaign Friday, June 1, with ten teams, the largest number in the circuit's history, according to Melvin Sloan, of Lonaconing, president.

The eight clubs that finished and started in 1961 season, namely, Barton, Lonaconing, Frostburg Little Moes, Frostburg Mounties, Ellerslie, Cresaptown, Mt. Savage and Westernport, have retained their franchises and the added starters are two teams from LaVale.

Each team will play a schedule of 18 games and the regular season will end early in August after which the playoffs will be staged. Both the playoff semi-finals and finals will be the best-of-three series. The earlier closing date was agreed upon so as not to conflict with football practice of the high schools which gets under way the latter part of August.

League games will be played on Mondays and Fridays at 6 p. m. Mt. Savage won the pennant last season with a 19-2 record. The Frostburg Mounties won the playoffs by defeating Cresaptown and Lonaconing.

Boros' Double In Ninth Wins Game

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI)—Steve Boros' two-run double off the top of the left field fence in the ninth inning gave the Detroit Tigers a 5-4 victory Tuesday over the Baltimore Orioles.

Boros connected off Hoyt Wilhelm after the Orioles, relief pitcher walked Norm Cash intentionally to fill the bases. Singles by Jake Wood and Billy Bruton put Wilhelm in trouble before Boros came through with his winning hit which missed by inches of being a grand slam homer.

Celtics Reveal Playoff Dates

Open Eastern Title Series On Saturday

BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Celtics Tuesday announced the first five dates for their National Basketball Association playoffs with the survivor of the current Philadelphia-Syracuse series.

The Celtics, shooting for their fourth successive NBA playoff crown after winning the regular season Eastern Division race for the sixth straight year, will open their best-of-seven Eastern finals series at home on Saturday afternoon.

The first game of the playoffs, to be played at Boston Garden, will be televised nationally with the Boston area blacked out.

The remainder of dates announced thus far include Sunday, March 25, afternoon, at either Philadelphia or Syracuse; Wednesday, March 28, at Boston, 8 p. m.; Saturday, March 31, away, 2:30 p. m. two additional dates, if needed, will be announced later.

Democratic Unity Urged By Texan

Rep. Wright Speaks At Party Dinner; Candidates Attend

By F. ALLAN WEATHERHOLT
News Staff Writer

"Democracy is not a spectator sport," Rep. James C. Wright (D-Tex.), told a capacity audience last night at the Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner sponsored by the Allegany County Democratic State Central Committee at Clarysville Inn.

Making his second public appearance in Cumberland, Rep. Wright recalled that he addressed the Young Democrats convention here several years ago. An excellent speaker and described as one of the busiest and most dedicated Congressmen in Washington, he was introduced by Thomas B. Finan, attorney general of Maryland.

After entertaining his audience of over 400 Democrats from Allegany and neighboring counties and a long list of state candidates, with "typically Texas stories," Mr. Wright spoke seriously on the Cold War and the cost of the nation's security.

Saying that almost 80 cents of every tax dollar which goes to Washington is used to pay for past wars and to maintain a military establishment for national security, Mr. Wright declared that "the yet unwritten pages of history await our resolution . . . whether what is left of the 20th century will give birth to a Democratic age of expanding freedom and human dignity, or to a Soviet age of historic retreat into armed repression and totalitarian brutality and the enslavement of man."

"Inch By Inch" He predicted, "it is probable this great problem of our freedom will not be resolved in a decade, perhaps not even in a generation. If we can manage to stay out of a shooting war without surrendering principle, the conflict may last for 30 to 40 years, to be fought inch by inch and round by round in all the arenas of organized society . . . military preparedness, ideological competition and economic endurance.

"Because we are great productive nation with a high national income," he said, we can weather this Cold War and economic storm far better than the Soviets. I am convinced we can win. I believe we shall win it."

Cuba "Chaotic Example" Referring to Cuba, he said, "We have 90 miles off our own shores a chaotic example of what happens when the rights of the individual and the dignity of man and not fostered and protected. Communism thrives on poverty." Referring to the Democratic Party and its principles, he told his audience, "Never forget for a minute, and always be proud in the knowledge that the Democrats are the party of the people. Jackson, Jefferson, Wilson, Roosevelt, Truman, and now President Kennedy, have a record of not standing still, of working today and looking toward the future. (Continued on Page 5)

City Planning Unit Gets Data On Two Studies

The first progress report on the city's master plan was presented to the Municipal Planning and Zoning Commission last night by the planning firm of Blair Associates.

John R. Joyner, resident planner, and George Marcou, associate of the Washington planning firm, presented informal reports on land use and building condition surveys completed by the firm in recent weeks.

Maps which show use made of land and the condition of buildings were placed on display in the mayor's office.

In good part of the city, the planners said, buildings are in such a condition the areas could go either way, and will deteriorate unless some action is taken.

A base map of the city is nearing completion in the firm's Washington office, Mr. Joyner said. The map, on the scale of one inch to 400 feet, will be used as the basic map on which all planning data will be shown.

Aerial maps of the city have been ordered, he added.

The planners promised to begin work on possible urban renewal projects and make recommendations on steps toward the rebuilding of any desired areas.

There has been considerable consideration given for a downtown renewal project, and the planning study is sure to take this proposal under consideration.

Plans are made to hold the next meeting of the commission on April 17 at 7:30 p.m. in City Hall.

Sitting in on the meeting was Richard A. Gucker, planning engineer for the State Planning Department, which awarded the $41,300 contract to Blair Associates on January 22.

The city's share of the 22-month study will be $8,350. Three fourths of the cost is being met through a federal grant.

Democrats Get Together

Among the central figures at the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner sponsored by the Democratic State Central Committee of Allegany County last night at Clarysville Inn were, from left, William L. Wilson, chairman of the committee; Gov. J. Millard Tawes, a candidate for re-election; Rep. James C. Wright of Texas, principal speaker; George P. Mahoney, opposing Gov. Tawes for the party's nomination in the May 15 primary, and Attorney General Thomas B. Finan, candidate for re-election on the Tawes ticket and master of ceremonies at the dinner, which drew a capacity crowd.

Junior High School Plans To Be Pushed

The Allegany County Board of Education voted yesterday to push plans for two new junior high schools for Cumberland.

Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster informed the five board members that the Silver Spring architectural firm of Johannes and Murray believes the county roads garage site at the end of Franklin Street a feasible site for the junior high school for North Cumberland.

The Board of County Commissioners has expressed interest in moving its garage from Franklin Street to a more central location in the Cresaptown area.

Location for the proposed junior high school for South Cumberland is still very much in the air.

Mrs. Richard Winer, one of the board members, recommended that consideration be given in the two new schools for swimming pools. Central YMCA has the only indoor pool in Cumberland and physical fitness reports recommend more year-round swimming.

Use of school facilities for four functions in the near future was approved by the school board. Chief among them is the Fort Hill High School auditorium for a concert on Friday, April 27, by the University of Notre Dame glee club. It will be sponsored by Wamba Caravan 89, Order of Alhambra, with the proceeds to go to the benefit of the fund for training teachers of retarded children.

Fort Hill High School auditorium use also was granted to the Fort Hill Boosters Club for a variety show on March 27. The Beall High Boosters obtained permission for use of the auditorium there for a dance revue on May 28.

Permission also was granted to the Tri-Towns Church Recreation Association for a program at Bruce High School for benefit of association members who also are students.

A letter from Victor D. Heisey, principal of Fort Hill High School, was read by Mr. Webster at yesterday's meeting. The principal complained about the fact that many empty beer and whiskey bottles were left in the boys dressing room after the final performance of the "Red Stocking Revue" on Saturday, March 3. Mr. Heisey said the condition of the room was the worst he has ever seen it and he has been principal of the school since it was opened in the fall of 1936.

Mahoney Tries To Nail Down Union Backing

Meets Here With Labor Leaders

By GEORGE BOWEN

CUMBERLAND (AP) — George P. Mahoney devoted most of his energy Tuesday nailing down the support of organized labor in his bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

The team of incumbent Gov. Tawes spent its time traveling the highways and byways, of less popular sections of Allegany County. Mahoney was accompanied by Woodrow F. Strong, president of the Maryland-District of Columbia AFL-CIO, in a round of morning conferences with labor leaders in Cumberland, where unionism is an influential word.

"Labor has a big stake in this election," said Strong. The Maryland-D. C. federation voted at its convention last summer to oppose Tawes for re-election, and early this year Strong vigorously led a fight at a meeting of the Committee on Political Education for endorsement of Mahoney.

The executive board had voted in favor of no endorsement in the Democratic primary nomination for governor May 15.

Culbertson With Tawes The Tawes ticket was not without its agent in search of labor votes. Traveling with the task force on its chartered bus was William J. Culbertson, legislative representative for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, which has come out for Tawes.

Among those with whom Strong arranged a meeting for Mahoney in the Labor Temple was Andrew Lewis, president of a union at the Pittsburgh Glass Co. and representatives of the Western Maryland Central Labor Council which includes neighboring Garrett County.

While Lewis did not announce a public endorsement, he told Mahoney his union members "are concerned about the loss of some road contracts to improve Route 40 between Hancock and Cumberland which we understand have been postponed until next year."

Lewis also informed Mahoney that union leaders are trying to assume that every member in the two counties is registered to vote.

Soil Steward Meeting Today

Allegany County will be represented at a meeting today at Baltimore when Soil Stewardship Week, May 26-June 3, will be discussed.

Martin M. Gordon, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service office here, said he and Charles Harvey, Frostburg, treasurer of the Allegany Soil Conservation District Supervisors, plan to attend the meeting at the Emerson Hotel.

Rev. Russell W. Burgess, Augusta, W. Va., who was named West Virginia's Rural Minister of the Year for 1961, will be guest speaker at the luncheon at noon.

Mr. Gordon said that at 10 a. m. today a directors' meeting will be held at the hotel.

School Board Meets With Commissioners

Four members of the Allegany County Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster met briefly yesterday with the Board of County Commissioners for further discussion of the proposed school budget for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Although no final action was taken by the county commissioners, it was understood that they are willing to grant part but not all of the $300 increase requested for teachers.

The present salary schedule for teachers with a bachelor's degree starts at $4,100 and reaches a maximum of $6,200. The school board had hoped to change the range from $4,400 to $6,500.

County Is Asked Again To Name Tax Study Unit

Letters Sent To Municipalities

Cumberland Mayor J. Edwin Keech this week repeated a request that the Board of Allegany County Commissioners appoint a commission to study the fiscal relationships between Allegany County and its municipalities.

In his letter, he said the City of Cumberland, on behalf of itself and other municipalities, requested the County Commissioners to appoint a study committee to report to the county commissioners on the advisability of granting a reduction in the county tax rate to all real estate located within municipalities.

Asks Tax Break

He said the Mayor and Council is again requesting the County Commissioners to appoint such a committee, as it is felt citizens of municipalities do not share in all county services and should pay a lower tax rate than property owners not located within municipalities.

Mayor Keech suggested that the committee should include two members who are property owners in municipalities, two from property owners outside municipalities and that the fifth member be a county commissioner.

He said the Mayor and Council would appreciate immediate appointment of the committee because "the matter has been dragging along too long as it is."

He urged the commissioners to reconsider previous action and appoint the committee to study the advisability of a reduction in the county tax rate.

Motion Fails

Copies of the letters were sent to the various municipalities, urging those in favor of the proposal to request the County Commissioners to appoint such a committee.

City officials made a formal request for the appointment of the committee late in February. The proposal was brought before the County Commissioners on March 2.

During the session, Commissioner John T. Mason moved that the committee be appointed. The motion failed for lack of a second.

About 11,000 Sets Of New License Tags Sold Here

About 11,000 sets of new Maryland automobile license tags have been sold at the office of Allegany County Tax Collector William B. Orndorff since the sale started February 26.

Through Monday, some 10,413 sets have been sold and an estimated 600 more were disposed of yesterday. Apparently, the volume is now running slightly ahead of last year.

The sale last year through March 20 totaled 10,681 sets of Maryland tags. Midnight Saturday, March 31, is the deadline for displaying the sold tags on private automobiles.

Polish Official Stresses Ties With U.S.

By ALBERT D. DARBY
News Staff Writer

Tadeusz Grzybowski, 35-year-old commercial counselor of the Polish Embassy in Washington, stressed the ties that have bound the United States and Poland together since 1607 in a talk at the weekly meeting of the Cumberland Rotary Club yesterday at Central YMCA.

Mr. Grzybowski came here from Washington to help the local club celebrate Rotary World Understanding Week. Dr. William T. Fridinger, Rotary president, who introduced the speaker, said this effort at better understanding will continue next week when a representative of the United Arab Republic addresses the club.

The speaker, who commented that yesterday's trip was his first visit to Cumberland, compared this city with Zakopane, which he called the Polish winter capital. The world winter skiing championships were held there in December.

In establishing close ties between his native land and the United States Mr. Grzybowski went back to Jamestown, Va., where Captain John Smith established the first permanent settlement in 1607. Polish artisans came to Jamestown shortly thereafter and established a glass business, the first industry in colonial America.

He emphasized that Kosciuszko and Pulaski were two Poles who

Joyner Begins Duties Here As City Planner

Is Native Of North Carolina

John Russell Joyner, 29, a member of the Washington planning firm of Blair Associates, has assumed his post as resident planner in the preparation of a comprehensive plan for the development of the City of Cumberland.

He will have his office in City Hall, where quarters on the second floor have been provided by the Mayor and Council.

Mr. Joyner will spend half of his time here during the 22-month study which began last in January.

He is 29 and a native of Farmville, N. C. He is a graduate of Farmville High School, received a B.S. degree in history at East Carolina College, Greenville, in 1955 and an M.R.P. degree from the Department of City and Regional Planning of the University of North Carolina in 1959.

He served as a planning interne at Greensboro, N. C., in the summer of 1957 and was assistant planning director there from 1957 to 1959.

Mr. Joyner was planning director at Rock Hill, S. C., from May 1959 until a few weeks ago when he joined the staff of Blair Associates.

He served as director of the Greensboro Exchange Club, treasurer of the Rock Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce, was president of the Rock Hill Toastmasters Club in 1961 and a member of the Rock Hill Kiwanis Club.

His wife, Edna S. Joyner, is a native of Pinetops, N. C. She received her A.B. degree in mathematics and religion at Greensboro, N. C. College and an M.A. degree in mathematics from the University of North Carolina.

Mrs. Joyner has taught in public schools in North and South Carolina and as instructor at Winthrop College, Rock Hill.

Mr. Joyner is looking for a place to live here during the project. Mrs. Joyner and their six-month-old son, John Jr., will live in Washington.

Buffalo More Polish City Than Warsaw?

Are there more Poles in Buffalo, N.Y., than in Warsaw, Poland?

Tadeusz Grzybowski, commercial counselor of the Polish Embassy in Washington, who visited here yesterday to address the Rotary Club, commented about a recent visit to Buffalo. During a free moment in that city, Mr. Grzybowski glanced through the Buffalo phone directory. He found 27 Grzybowskis listed. In Warsaw, Poland, he had counted only seven Grzybowskis.

The visiting diplomat pointed out that there are 12 members of the U.S. House of Representatives of Polish origin. Poland today has a population of about 31,000,000 and there are 3,000,000 Polish-Americans in this country.

Smoking Blamed In Fatal Fire

Probe Discloses Blaze Started In Upstairs Bedroom

A fire that killed seven persons and destroyed five buildings on Broadway early Saturday apparently was started by careless smoking in an upstairs bedroom, Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker said yesterday.

Chief Parker said evidence and testimony of survivors obtained during an extensive investigation by city, county and state officials indicated that the fire started in the middle upstairs bedroom at 315 Broadway.

Evidence also pointed to the fact that it was a delayed alarm.

The fire was fanned by stiff winds early Saturday morning.

Members of the Cumberland fire and police departments, the state's attorney's office and the state fire marshal's office are in full accord as to the origin and probable cause of the blaze which was reported about 4:30 a.m. Saturday, Parker said.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Parker met with Police Chief B. Frank Gaffney, Edwin R. Lilya, criminal investigator of Allegany County; City Police Detective Lt. Thomas J. See and Detective Harry Iser at Chief Gaffney's office.

Others who took part in the extensive investigation were Jesse Jacobs of the state fire marshal's office, Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming, Assistant Fire Chiefs Alvey Poole and Vincent Wegman, Fire Inspector Edward Trost, and City Police Detective Kenneth Morrissey.

The seven victims of the early morning blaze were found in the upstairs rooms of 315 Broadway. Mrs. Betty Knipple, mother of four of the victims, was reported to have been at an East Oldtown Road dwelling at the time of the fire, police said.

Police said they questioned Mrs. Knipple later in the day.

Mayor Seeks Action On Two Subways

Concern over the condition of the Wineow Street subway has been expressed by the City of Cumberland in a letter to H. I. Walton, superintendent of the B&O's Cumberland Division.

Mayor J. Edwin Keech told Mr. Walton the city is concerned about water which drains from railroad property into the subway, saying city officials are quite concerned that constant freezing and thawing may have adversely affected the structural strength of the subway.

He suggested that Mr. Walton refer the matter to the division Engineering department, so engineers can inspect the subway and advise the city if they think the strength of the structure has been affected.

City Drainage

City Engineer C. R. Nuzum, he said, will be happy to accompany B&O engineers on the inspection tour.

Mayor Keech said the engineers should be able to agree on a plan to stop the drainage of water into the subway.

During rainy days, he said, it is impossible for pedestrians to use the sidewalks without having their clothes spotted from dirty water leaking from the roof of the subway.

He added he feels a real emergency exists, and he urged immediate action.

Mayor Keech wrote a memorandum to Street Commissioner John J. Long, saying it has been brought to his attention that the Greene Street railroad underpass is in a deplorable condition.

Termed Deplorable He said several inches of dirt and mud are on the sidewalks, as well as along curbs, and on a rainy day persons walking through the subway are spashed by cars as well as from water leaking from the bridge.

Mayor Keech told Mr. Long he did not know who is responsible for cleaning the subway but that it should be cleaned as soon as possible, and some action taken to prevent water from draining from the railroad tracks down into the subway.

Mayor Keech said Commissioner Long advised yesterday the subway is a B&O responsibility.
